WEBSLEUTHS

Read the text on the class's blog in order to do the following activities:

I Answer the following questions (you do not need to make sentences):

a) What type of document is it?

b) Who wrote it, and when? (use all the letters of the day and month in your answer)

c) Who is the main focus of this text?

d) What is the topic?

II True or false?

a) Tricia Griffith frightened a stranger at a mall when she was 15.

b) After this experience, she started websleuths.com in 1999.

c) JonBénet Ramsey was a six-year-old child beauty queen murdered by Ted Bundy.

d) JonBénet Ramsey's murder led to the creation of websleuths.com

e) Tricia Griffith is the owner of websleuths.com

III Fill in the blanks with words from our lesson:

Websleuths.com is a website for people who want to _____ real life crimes. They are investigators, not real detectives, because they do not work for the police, but their mission is the same: solve the _____ and identify the _____. The website allows its members to connect and collaborate to _____ true cases. People bounce around theories and share _____, but there must be no rumours, only facts and _____. Websleuths members sometimes help the police with their _____, and they have solved many _____. [do not use the word "mysteries" in the last box]

IV – Use this box to give information about the members of websleuths.com (this time you need to write sentences ;-):

Mrs J.

LIVEWORKSHEETS