Activity 1: Complete the paragraph below

Little Albatross – Part 1

Then one day Mother and Father Albatross looked at Little Albatross and saw how big he was, and how strong. It would be quite , they thought, to leave him for a and go off fishing together.

So flew, out over the cliff top, singing their soaring song, the song of the wandering albatross. did not see the killer bird beneath them. But the killer bird saw them. He was watching. He was

"Oh Father! Oh Mother!" Little Albatross, who had never before been left on his own. "Come back! Come back!"

But the wind screamed and the roared and could not hear him. Out over the surging sea they soared, on the look-out for silver flashing fish swimming below them in the surging sea. One glimpse was all needed.

Activity 2: Complete the sentences using "and, or, but, so, because"

1 Max was crossing the road. He was hit by a bicycle.
2 Max rolled into a ball. He wasn't hurt too badly.
3 He knew that he could stay near the road. He could go home.
4 He wobbled as he walked. He had a bad headache.
5 His sisters knew he was hurt. They wanted to ask him questions.
6 Max hurt his head. His thoughts were muddled.

LIVEWORKSHEETS