

Part A Write the sentences about Nick' room.

close empty hang up put tidy water make

NICK'S ROOM YESTERDAY

NICK'S ROOM

TODAY

Example: his books : He has put his books on the shelf.

1. his trousers :

2. the waste-paper basket:

3. his bed:

4. his jacket:

5. his school bag:

6. the drawers:

7. his shoes:

8. the plant:

Part B Choose the correct time expression used with the present perfect tense.

1. We have lived in this city _____ fifteen years. (since / for)

2. She has not returned from school _____ (yet / just)

3. Jane has _____ gone out. (just / yet)

4. You have not returned my money _____. (already / yet)

5. James has _____ arrived in London. (already / yet)

6. I have _____ had a call from your mother. (yet / just)

7. She has worked with me _____ 2008. (since / for)

8. I haven't seen him _____ two weeks. (since / for)

9. How _____ have you known him? (long / much)

10. I have _____ completed my homework. (already / yet)

11. We have _____ begun our project. (for / just)

12. Carl has taught French _____ June. (since / for)