Test

1. Name the continents of the Earth in order of size and give their sizes.

a)

b)

c)

d) e)

f)

2. Write the number corresponding to the sentences in the correct place.

1. There are 90 - 90 of them.
2. They are parallel to each other.
3. They meet at the Poles.
4. They get smaller and smaller toward the Poles.
5. They are the same length.
6. There are 180 - 180 of them.
7. They run from N to S.
8. They run from W to E.

Lines of longitude:

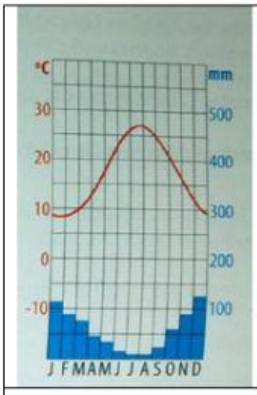
Lines of latitude:

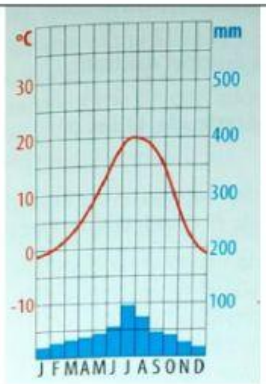
3. Name the borders of Europe.

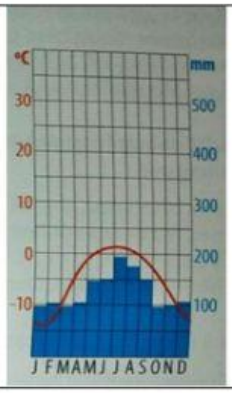
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.

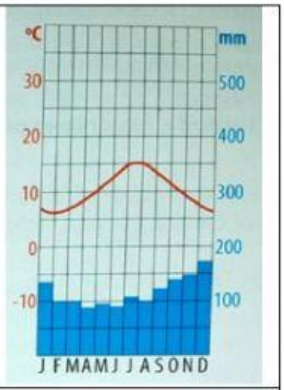
LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Name the climates, then drag and drop the sentences into the correct places.









Cool summers.

Cool summers.

Hot summers.

Hot and dry summers.

Dry periods in summer called draughts.

Most of the rainfall happens at the beginning of the summer.

Cold winters.

A lot of rain all year round.

Most of the rain falls in the winter.

Great changes in temperature.

A lot of rain all year round.

Mild winters.

Mild winters.

Cold winters.

Small changes in temperature.

LIVEWORKSHEETS