1 Lasi interviju ar arheologu. Izvēlies pareizos vai visatbilstošākos vārdus.

How did you become interested in archaeology?

I've always enjoyed history. Then one year there was a dig in my home town of York. They wanted volunteers to work on a Roman site. 1 _____ friends and I joined the dig and I loved every minute.

What did you find on the first dig?

We found 2 _____ pieces of pottery and a few animal bones. There wasn't 3 _____ evidence of human life there. But then on a different part of the site, there were 4 _____ interesting things – Roman coins, a knife and 5 _____ jewellery.

What sort of person can become an archaeologist?

You need to have an interest in the past. You also need 6 _____ patience. You can't work on big, famous digs all the time. 7 _____ archaeologists discover a completely new site like Pompeii, for example. You also need to travel if your area doesn't have 8 _____ archaeological sites.

What's the worst thing about your job?

I work on Roman sites and I have 9 _____ time to find out about other aspects of archaeology. That's a shame because it's a fascinating subject. The pay isn't brilliant either, so it would be good to have 10 _____ more money. But it's a great life and I wouldn't like to change jobs.
