BARRANQUILLA NUEVO COLEGIO DEL PRADO	SCIENCE QUIZ NERVOUS SYSTEM AND SENSES 5°	EFQM Recognised for Excellence 4 Star - 2020

1. Match each term with its definition.

a. NERVOUS SYSTEM

b. NEURON

c. SPINAL CORD

d. BRAINSTEM

e. CEREBRUM

f. CEREBELLUM

g. BRAIN

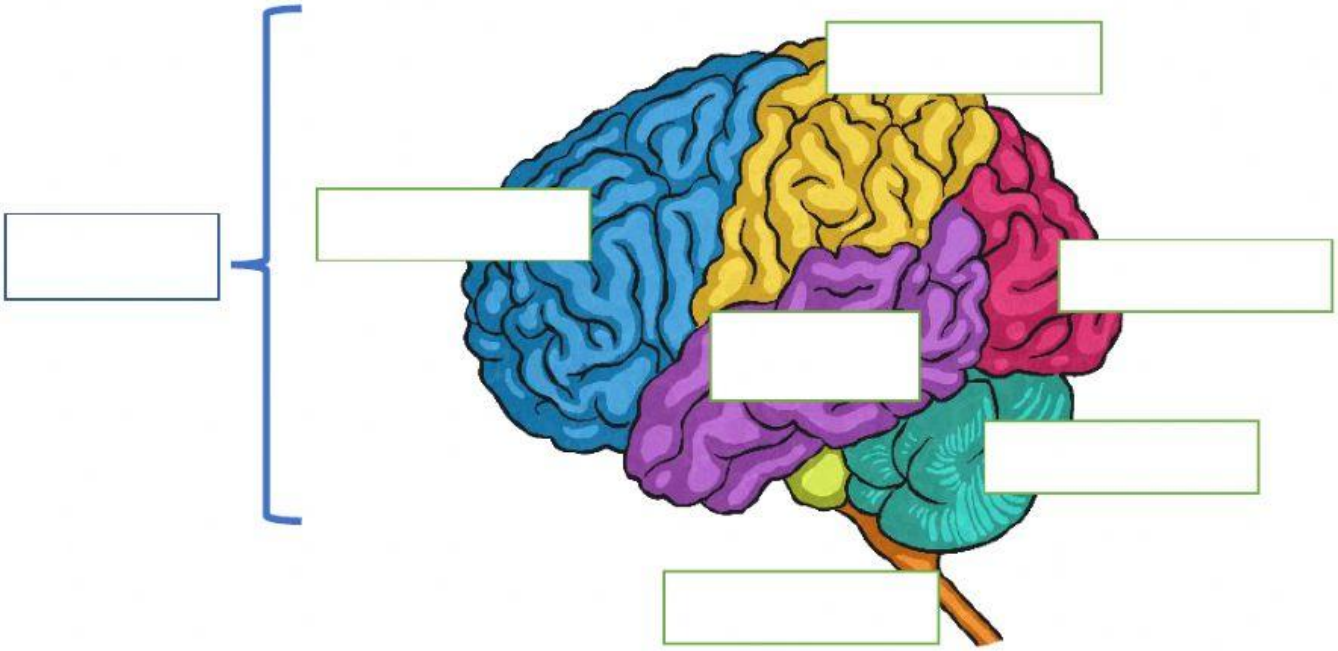
h. STIMULUS

- It is the director of your body which controls everything you do.
- It controls the movement of your muscles and give you balance.
- It is something that causes a response.
- It is a network of cells, tissues, and organs that controls thoughts, movements, and simpler life processes.
- It connects the brain to the nerves that are found throughout the body.
- They are specialized cells of the nervous system in charge of transmitting messages.
- It is in charge of important functions in our body as the heart beating and lungs breathing.
- It is the largest part of the brain. It is divided into sections called lobes

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Identify the different parts of the brain

			Cerebrum
Temporal lobe	Cerebellum	Brainstem	Frontal lobe	Occipital lobe	Parietal lobe



3. Observe and identify which part of the brain is in charge of the function

LIVEWORKSHEETS