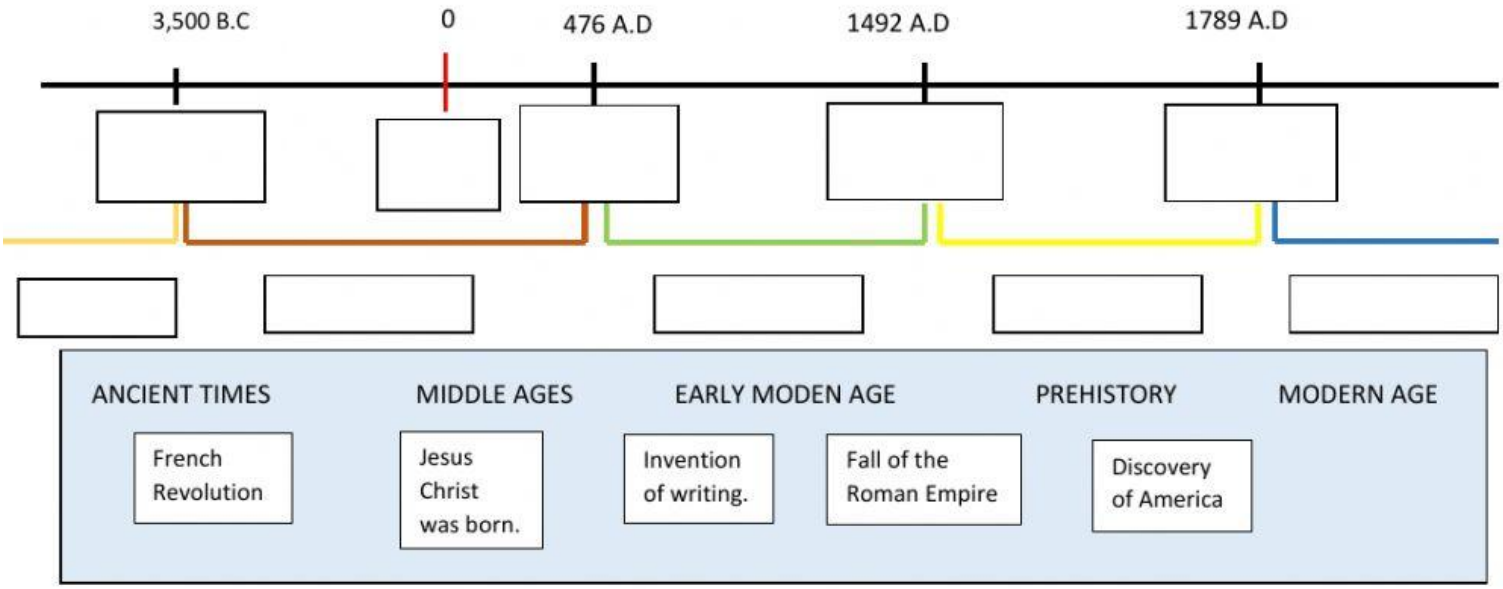
HISTORY

EXAM PRACTICE 2

1. Drag and drop the words from the box to complete the timeline.



2. Choose the correct option.

- The Romans came to the Iberian Peninsula.
- The steam engine was invented.
- The Greeks invented democracy.
- Rich people like the nobles lived in castles.
- Cervantes wrote "El Quijote".
- Poor children had to work in factories but rich children could go to school.
- The Muslims came to the Iberian Peninsula.
- Poor people worked in factories.
- Houses and transports were better. There were many new inventions like cars, planes, TV...

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Read choose TRUE or FALSE.

a) Prehistoric people lived in big houses. TRUE FALSE

b) In the Middle Ages there were cars. TRUE FALSE

c) In Prehistory, people hunted and collected food. TRUE FALSE

d) Ancient Times began with the invention of writing. TRUE FALSE

e) The Early Modern Age began with the fall of the Roman Empire. TRUE FALSE

f) The Greeks believed in one God. TRUE FALSE

g) The Romans built aqueducts. TRUE FALSE

h) Prehistoric people discovered fire and invented the wheel. TRUE FALSE

i) In the Middle Ages, everybody could read and write. TRUE FALSE

k) In the Modern or Contemporary Age, the steam engine was created. TRUE FALSE

4. Complete the text with the words from the box.

Prehistory started with the first_____, about 5 million years ago. Prehistoric people lived in caves. They hunted and collected food and they discovered _____ and invented the _____. Then, around 3,500 B.C, people invented writing. This was the beginning of Ancient Times.

During Ancient Times, there were great civilizations, like the _____, the Romans and the Egyptians. Some of them came to the Iberian Peninsula. The Romans called it _____. Then, with the fall of the Roman Empire, in _____, the Middle Ages started.

The Middle Ages was the period of the kings, princesses and knights. Rich people were nobles and priests. The nobles lived in _____ and the priests lived in _____. In 711 A.D, the _____ came to the Iberian Peninsula, conquered the south and called it al-Andalus.

In 1492 A.D Christopher Columbus discovered _____. This was the beginning of the early Modern Age. In Spain, there were many important writers and artists in this time, like Cervantes and Velazquez. This period is called the _____.

Golden Age	castles	Hispania	humans	fire
monasteries	Muslims	Greeks	wheel	476 A.D	America

LIVEWORKSHEETS