Practice 18.2A Choosing Who or Whom Correctly

Read each sentence. Then, write who or whom to complete the sentence.
EXAMPLE _____Will start for the Houston Astros tomorrow?
ANSWER Who

1. _____ is the best student in the class?

2. For _____ did you vote?

3. He is a talented singer _____ is destined for great things.

4. The woman on the phone was not _____ he had anticipated.

5. To _____ did you speak about the charity event?

6. _____ was at the dance last weekend?

7. Ada knows _____ made the mistake.

8. Do you know _____ wrote that song?

9. With _____ did you drive?

10. _____ should I ask about the return policy?

Practice B Labeling Pronouns

Read each sentence. Then, identify whether each underlined pronoun is in ta nominative or objective case.
Example: Who climbed over the wall?
Answer: nominative

1. Larry knows who is the winner.
2. To whom should Martha address this package?
3. The caller is who?
4. Make the recipe with whoever has joined the cooking class.
5. The doctor wasn't sure whom the medical report was about.
6. Who will win a scholarship to art school from our class?
7. Address the package to whoever ordered the books.
8. With whom did Randy share a locker in gym class?
9. Next to whom did Maria sit in biology lab?
10. Whom did Bill see at the concert last night?

LIVEWORKSHEETS