Prepositions

Tell Where and Show Directions

Prepositions can tell where things are. My house is next to the park. Prepositions can tell a direction, or a way to go. I walk to the park.
Location	on, under, beside, in, next to, behind, in front of, between
Direction	across, to, up, around, out, down, into

Directions: Read each sentence then type location or direction.

1. The bank is next to the school. _____
2. The boy walked across the bridge. _____
3. Our house is beside the park. _____
4. She came down the stairs. _____
5. The ball is under the box. _____
6. He ran up the hill. _____
7. Teddy is in the box. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. I like going to school. _____

9. The ball is on the box. _____

10. Teddy is behind a dinosaur. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS