Saint George's legend

Once upon a time there was a brave called George. He had a lot of adventures as he travelled by horse across many lands. One day he went to a small and met a man who lived in a next to the village. The hermit told the knight about the awful things that were happening there. A terrible dragon had come to live in the and attacked the village every day. The villagers didn't know what to do. First they gave the dragon all their but the dragon just took the food and still attacked the village. So they gave the dragon all the money and jewels. The dragon took all their but still was not satisfied. The sent all his army to capture the dragon. But the dragon was too and the knights of the army were too scared and they run away.

With nothing left to give, the king could only think of one thing to help protect his people. He sent his only , the princess, to the lake to wait for the dragon. George heard this he rode as fast as he could to the lake. Just then the dragon jumped out from the lake and was going to eat the princess. George attacked the dragon. He fought very bravely, won the fight and the dragon.

George and the princess returned to the village and everybody was very pleased that they would have no problems with the dragon. Today the story of George's bravery is remembered and George is known as the patron saint of many .
