THE LIGHTHOUSE CHRISTIAN BILINGUAL SCHOOL
GRAMMAR IV QUARTER EXAM
6TH GRADE

Rewrite the sentence by changing the underlined verb to the verb tense in parentheses.

1. I shop for spring clothes. (present progressive)

2. Today, Mom drives us to a different store. (Present progressive)

3. Shoppers crowd the parking lots all day. (present perfect progressive)

4. Glenna finished her homework when I came. (past progressive)

5. I visited Debbie before I went to Glenna´s. (past perfect progressive)

6. I go to the party with my best friend Maureen. (future progressive)

7. She and her mom pick me up soon. (future progressive)

8. Next month, we are friends for twelve years. (future perfect progressive

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Rewrite the sentence by combining the pronoun and the verb into a contraction form.

9. I will put my uniform at Cesar´s house

10. He has never been on a ship before.

11. I am worry about his safety.

12. She is going with us to the ship´s launch.

13. You are an excellent sailor.

14. Jafet would not refuse to help someone.

15. You should not have any trouble finding a place to hide.

LIVEWORKSHEETS