Indicate true or false and support your choices by indicating where you obtained the information from in the text you've read.

	true	false
1- In the Elizabethan theater, the stage had no roof over it.	☐	☐
2- The stage's ceiling was called the heavens and it depicted part of the cosmos.	☐	☐
3- Johannes de Witt was a Dutchman who drew a sketch of the Swan.	☐	☐
4- Shakespeare's plays were staged only at the Globe.	☐	☐
5- The stages in the Theatre, the Curtain and the Globe were different from the Swan and the Rose.	☐	☐
6- The Blackfriars was an indoor playhouse.	☐	☐
7- The Blackfriars had room for large audiences.	☐	☐
8- It was cheaper to see a play at the Blackfriars than to see it from the yard in an outdoor theater.	☐	☐
9- The stages in Shakespeare's time were different from the English stages today.	☐	☐
10- Acting companies were organized in different ways: some of them had a theater leasing, and others owned a theater and shared profits and expenses.	☐	☐
11- Actors required protection of powerful patrons if they did not want to be considered vagabonds or reckless beggars.	☐	☐

LIVEWORKSHEETS