Watch a short video and answer the questions.

1) Fill the gap: On May 27th, 1941, the German battleship Bismarck sank in a _____ firefight, leaving only 118 of her 2,200 _____ members alive.

2) Fill the gap: For the next several months this cat hunted rats and raised British morale - until a _____ torpedo strike shattered the _____ and …

3) He .... to Gibraltar...

a. Swam

b. float

c. rode

4) What word/s is/are used to describe cats?

a. serviceable

b. useful

c. kind

d. cooperative

5) Fill the gap: But cats have been working _____ humans for thousands of years - helping us just as often as we help them.

6)Fill the gap: The domestication of the modern house cat can be _____ to more than 10,

7)Fill the gap: These Neolithic farmers stored their excess grain in large _____ and short, _____

8) Fill the gap: And they were _____ similar in size and _____ to today's domestic cats.

9) Fill the gap: The _____ of prey in _____ granaries drew in these typically solitary animals.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10) Fill the gap: And as the wildcats learned to _____ the presence of humans and other cats during mealtime,

11) Fill the gap: The relationship was so _____ that the cats migrated with Neolithic farmers from Anatolia into Europe and the Mediterranean.

12) Fill the gap: _____ were a major _____ of the seven seas.

13) Why were cats essential sailing companions?

Fill the gap: They ate provisions and _____ at lines of rope , so cats had long since become essential sailing companions.

14) Fill the gap: Revered for their ability to _____ venomous snakes,

15) Fill the gap: They _____ in frescos, hieroglyphs, statues, and even _____ mummified alongside their owners.

16) Fill the gap: Egyptian ship cats cruised the Nile, holding poisonous river snakes _____ .

17) Fill the gap: And after graduating to larger _____ they too began to migrate from port to port.

18) Fill the gap: Centuries later, in the _____ , Egyptian cats voyaged up to the Baltic Sea on the ships of Viking _____

19) Fill the gap: … _____ setting sail for Australia and the Americas.

20) Fill the gap: Today, most house cats have _____ from either the Near Eastern or the Egyptian lineage of F.

21) What do you think a coat pattern is?

Fill the gap: But close analysis of the _____ and coat patterns of modern cats tells us that unlike dogs,

22) Fill the gap: And _____ making them more social and docile, we've done little to _____ their natural behaviors.

LIVEWORKSHEETS