Q1. READ THE PASSAGE AND COMPLETE THE ACTIVITY-

Once upon a time there was a big tree in the forest. The tree was the home of three owls. One day an old owl saw a small creeper growing at the foot of the tree. The old owl showed the other two owls the small creeper. He advised them to cut the creeper and also told that it would bring harm to them. They didn't listen to the old owl. The creeper grew fast and became strong. It began winding its way up the tree. The creeper became as thick as a thick rope. Slowly it sucked the sap of the whole tree. The big green tree became dry. The three owls lost their home. They became very sad. At last they repented on their foolish deed. They cried in front of the old owl. The old owl said, 'As you sow so shall you reap'. So 'Think before you act'. Such experience teaches that 'The old sayings are always valued as gold'.
