III. Use the linkers given in the box below to complete the story. A linker may be used more than once. page no.10

A young doctor lived in a village. The doctor told his friends an interesting story about himself and a cobra. It was a hot summer night. _____ he opened the door, he heard a sound _____ was well known to him. He and the rats shared the same room. There was no electricity in the house, _____ he took out a box of matches and lit a kerosene lamp. He took off his clothes and lay down _____ he could not sleep. He got up from the bed and started reading a story-book. Near the table there was a mirror, _____ tempted him to look into himself. He was unmarried _____ he was particular about his handsomeness. He wanted to marry a woman doctor _____had plenty of money and should be fat. _____ he was having such thoughts, suddenly he felt _____ a rubber tube had fallen to the ground _____ a snake landed on his shoulder. At that time the only thing he could do was to pray to God. The snake would bite him at any moment _____suddenly it turned its head and started admiring its beauty in the mirror. The doctor was thus saved .

as if	but	who	when	which	so	while

LIVEWORKSHEETS