Read about Paula's city.

My city
by Paula Thompson

I live on Sansom Street, in the center of Philadelphia, in the U.S. There are lots of great stores and cafés on my street. My favorite place is the Ben and Jerry's ice cream store. I enjoy meeting friends there and the ice cream is fantastic. I also like Joseph Fox – it's a cool bookstore and it's very close to my house. I love going there on Saturdays. I like looking at the books and buying magazines. We also live near the Walnut Street Theater. The theatre was 100 years old in 2009! My mom and dad are crazy about it, so we go there all the time.

Last year I went to Junior High school and I had to get up at 6:30 a.m. and take the bus to school. This year I'm in High School and I can walk to my new school in five minutes. So I don't have to get up early! It's great! I really like my city but there's one problem – there isn't anywhere to skateboard near my house. I often meet my friends after school in Washington Square Park. It's a great park but we mustn't skateboard there.

I also live close to the Swedish Church and the home of the writer Edgar Allen Poe. But my favorite place is Franklin Court. It's a museum about the life of Benjamin Franklin. He was a famous politician and scientist and he helped discover electricity.

10 Read the text and write the names of these places.

1 a theater _____
2 a park _____
3 a church _____
4 a museum _____
