WILL vs BE GOING TO

1. A: What will you / are you going to do this weekend?
   B: It is Nick's birthday so I will / am going to make him a cake.

2. A: Why are you working so hard these days?
   B: Because I'm saving money. I will / am going to buy a new car.

3. A: What will you / are you going to buy Rebecca for her birthday?
   B: A new CD.
   A: But she doesn't have a CD player.
   B: Really? So I will / am going to buy her a book then.

4. A: Why have you got so many eggs here?
   B: Because I will / am going to make an omellete.

5. A: Mum, you must help me with this homework. I don't know how to do it.
   B: I'm cooking so I can't now. Ask dad, he will / is going to help you.
   A: Dad, will you / are you going to help me, please?
   C: OK, no problem.

6. A: We will / are going to have an appointment with a tax consultant tomorrow.
   B: Oh, why?
   A: Because we will / are going to start our own business.

7. A: Omg, I left my wallet at home. I can't go by bus.
   B: Oh, I will / am going to lend you some money if you like? How much do you need?
   A: Thanks! 10 pounds is enough, I think. I will / am going to pay you back tomorrow.

8. Do you know about Michael and Susan? They will / are going to get married in June.

9. You don't have to take an umbrella with you. I don't think it will / is going to rain.

10. What?!? The score is 7:1?! Well, we will / are going to lose this match, I'm afraid.
