Maimun Palace is a tourist destination in North Sumatra which has historical and cultural values. Located at Jalan Brigjen Katamso, Aur, Medan, this palace is iconic to Medan.

The building stands on an area of 2,772 square meters and is the heritage of the Deli Sultanate. It was designed by an Italian architect and built in 1888 under the rule of Sultan Makmun Al Rasvid Perkasa, the Sultan of Deli.

The palace has stunning architecture; it combines Islamic, Dutch, and Malay architectures with a dominant color of yellow. This two-storey building is divided into three parts, namely, the main building, left and right wing parts. It is supported by 82 octagonal stone pillars and 43 wooden pillars.

The first floor displays antiques such as old furniture and ornaments, while the second floor is used as the residence of the sultanate families. There are 13 rooms on the second floor: 7 of which are in the main building, 3 rooms in the left wing part, and 3 other rooms in the right wing part.
