

Why are you always so _____? (niezdecydowany)

Their children often _____ at school. (źle się zachowują)

Writers become _____ through their writings. (nieśmiertelni)

He's a nice guy, a little _____, but intelligent. (niedojrzały)

It's _____ to interrupt someone. (nieuprzejme)

It's _____ to be completely objective in this situation. (niemożliwe)

It may be _____, but it's true. (niewiarygodne)

It was an _____ adventure for me. (niezapomniana)

_____, they couldn't visit us yesterday. (niestety)

The information you gave was _____. (błędna)

He came at an _____ time. (nieodgodnym)

The police officer gave me a ticket for driving with an _____ license.
(nieważny, po utraceniu daty ważności)

The plane _____ into the clouds. (zniknął)

He looked at me in _____. (niedowierzaniem)

My parent _____ of my lifestyle. (nie pochwalają)

I think I've _____ her. (źle ocenilem)

Maybe it's all just a big _____. (nieporozumienie)

Don't _____ my comments as criticism. (błędnie interpretować)

One _____ of living in the city is the lack of safe places for children to play. (wada, minus)