

Watch a short video and answer the questions.

1) Fill the gap: On May 27th, 1941, the German battleship Bismarck sank in a _____ fire fight, leaving only 118 of her 2,200 _____ members alive.

2) Fill the gap: For the next several months this cat hunted rats and raised British morale - until a _____ torpedo strike shattered the _____ and ...

3) He to Gibraltar...

- a. Swam
- b. float
- c. rode

4) What word/s is/are used to describe cats?

- a. serviceable
- b. useful
- c. kind
- d. cooperative

5) Fill the gap: But cats have been working _____ humans for thousands of years - helping us just as often as we help them.

6) Fill the gap: The domestication of the modern house cat can be _____ to more than 10,

7) Fill the gap: These Neolithic farmers stored their excess grain in large _____ and short, _____

8) Fill the gap: And they were _____ similar in size and _____ to today's domestic cats.

9) Fill the gap: The _____ of prey in _____ granaries drew in these typically solitary animals.

- 10) Fill the gap: And as the wildcats learned to _____ the presence of humans and other cats during mealtime,
- 11) Fill the gap: The relationship was so _____ that the cats migrated with Neolithic farmers from Anatolia into Europe and the Mediterranean.
- 12) Fill the gap: _____ were a major _____ of the seven seas.
- 13) Why were cats essential sailing companions?
- Fill the gap:* They ate provisions and _____ at lines of rope , so cats had long since become essential sailing companions.
- 14) Fill the gap: Revered for their ability to _____ venomous snakes,
- 15) Fill the gap: They _____ in frescos, hieroglyphs, statues, and even _____ mummified alongside their owners.
- 16) Fill the gap: Egyptian ship cats cruised the Nile, holding poisonous river snakes _____.
- 17) Fill the gap: And after graduating to larger _____ they too began to migrate from port to port.
- 18) Fill the gap: Centuries later, in the _____ , Egyptian cats voyaged up to the Baltic Sea on the ships of Viking _____.
- 19) Fill the gap: ... _____ setting sail for Australia and the Americas.
- 20) Fill the gap: Today, most house cats have _____ from either the Near Eastern or the Egyptian lineage of F.
- 21) What do you think a coat pattern is?
- Fill the gap:* But close analysis of the _____ and coat patterns of modern cats tells us that unlike dogs,
- 22) Fill the gap: And _____ making them more social and docile, we've done little to _____ their natural behaviors.