CONFUSING VERBS

Choose the correct verb to complete the sentence

1. Can you tell/say me the way to the station, please?
2. He didn't tell/say a word.
3. Forget everything I just told/said.
4. Can I talk/speak to Mary?
5. He's going to have to speak/talk for himself on that problem.
6. We spoke/talked today with Mary and Lili King.
7. They are always doing/making the same mistake.
8. My mom does/makes the shopping on Fridays.
9. The Kardashians do/make a lot of money.
10. Did you see/watch the advert in the newspaper?
11. I spent the evening looking/watching TV.
12. Look/See out! There's some water on the floor.
13. Hey John! Can you hear/listen that sound?
14. Sorry I wasn't really hearing/listening.
15. That's good to hear/listen.
16. The team has already missed/lost 3 matches.
17. The climbers were missed/lost for 2 days.
18. I don't miss/lose my old job. This one is so much better.
19. I'm going to know/meet them at the airport at 9 pm.
20. My mother has lived here for 10 years so she knows/meets the city very well.
21. Tom wants to come/go out with Sam tonight.
22. We come/go from Venice.

LIVEWORKSHEETS