REVIEW (TEXTBOOK PAGE 40)

| Activi | ty 4  |                 |                              |  |
|---------------|---|-----------------|------------------------------|--|
| Comp          | lete the sentences                              | with can or can | 't so they are true for you. |  |
| 1.            | I jump high.                                    |                 |                              |  |
| 2.            | My dad climb a tree.                            |                 |                              |  |
| 3.            | My mum speak three languages.                   |                 |                              |  |
| Ч.            | . My grandmotheruse a computer.                 |                 |                              |  |
| 5.            | My teacher                                      | cou             | nt to 100 in Italian.        |  |
|               |   |                 |                              |  |
| Activi        | tv 6  |                 |                              |  |
|               | lete the dialogue wi                        | th the words in | the box.                     |  |
| comp          | ioro mo didiogdo in                             | m me werde n    | THE DOK.                     |  |
|               | Can I go  | Great           | I'm afraid you can't         |  |
|               | I'm sorry, but                                  | Is it OK if     | That's OK                    |  |
|               | why not   |                 |                              |  |
| Luke:         | I go to Mat's house tonight?                    |                 |                              |  |
| Mum:          | No,   |                 |                              |  |
| Luke:         | But, Mum,? He's got a new computer game.        |                 |                              |  |
| Mum:          | your grandparents are here and you've got schoo |                 |                              |  |
|               | tomorrow.                                       |                 |                              |  |
| Luke:         | Oh, OK on Saturday night, then?                 |                 |                              |  |
| Mum:          | Yes, of course                                  |                 |                              |  |
| Luke:         | Thanks, Mum.                                    |                 |                              |  |
| Mum:          | Can I speak to his parents before you go?       |                 |                              |  |
| Luke:         | Sure.   |                 |                              |  |

