CD1 Track 17

Good evening and welcome aboard the Pride of Poole. In this recorded _____, we'll give you details of some of the facilities available on board this ship.

You're currently standing in the reception area in the centre of B Deck. If you're feeling _____ after a long day's travelling, go up the stairs to A Deck, where you'll find the restaurant. The restaurant caters for all appetites, with anything from a light snack to a full _____ meal. The restaurant will be open from the moment the ship leaves port to half an hour before arrival.

Next to the restaurant on A Deck in the lounge, there are reclining seats with music _____ if you want to relax. The headphones are free, but people using this area are encouraged to keep noise to a _____ so that other _____ can enjoy themselves and sleep or read if they wish.

For those of you who'd like some _____, just next door to us on this deck is a 40-seat cinema showing the latest full-length feature films. The cinema programme is available here at _____ but you'll have to buy the tickets themselves at the cinema entrance just before you go in.

Just next to the cinema is the staircase leading down to the cabins on C Deck. To access your cabin, just show your _____ to a steward, who will give you the key.

On this deck, that is B Deck, you'll also find an area where you can either play games in our special electronic games arcade or do your shopping.

Just beyond that on the same level, people who want a bit of _____ or just want to see the sea can go out onto the viewing deck, which is in the open air. Make sure you wear a jacket or coat, as it can be quite cold and windy.
