ACELERADO 1 ADULTOS

Josie has a blog! Read this entry about her neighbors.

Hello there! I'm Josie. I'm 38 and I'm from the U.S. I'm a secretary in a big international company.

I live alone in an apartment and during quarantine I have to work from home but I have a big problem…My neighbors are extremely noisy! A young couple with small children live upstairs. Their children shout all the time. They also have a dog; it usually barks when they aren't at home. Oh, the baby is crying now… again!

An old couple live next door. They get up at 5 o'clock every day and usually have the TV on very loud because they almost can't hear. Right now, they are arguing about which shows they are going to watch. Luckily, they go to bed very early.

Three university students live downstairs; they are usually friendly and quiet on weekdays. But on weekends, they have parties and their music is very loud! They are also in a band, so they play musical instruments every Saturday. I can't relax or read a book on weekends. At the moment they are quiet because today is Tuesday. Thank goodness!

I think I need a new apartment or some new neighbors!

Paragraph 3: What you are doing this month.

Dear friend:

How are you doing these days? Hope you are great! I'm Josie. I'm from New York and I'm a secretary. I love doing many things. I love reading and listening to music. I also like watching series but I hate watching TV.

I work from home long hours every day but I have a big problem. I have very noisy neighbors. They usually have parties, dance and play too loud music. So, it's almost impossible to finish reading my favorite books! What about your neighbors?

Luckily, this month I'm doing something different! I'm visiting my sister. She lives in Mexico! I'm travelling to Cancún next week. We are going to beach and we are sightseeing next Saturday. I'm so excited! What are you doing this month?

Love, Josie
