

Noun clauses as subjects

1. Change the clause for a normal subject

Example:

X) That she worked hard for the whole term pleased her parents.

Her hard work pleased her parents.

A) Whatever you want is fine with me.

B) What moved him was a sense of those worlds around us.

C) What we remember forms the most personal map of our individuality.

D) How the clouds formed on that July afternoon still makes me smile.

E) Where the candy bar is hidden remains a mystery.

2. Change the normal subject for a clause

Example:

X) His performance today impressed the judges.

How he performed today impressed the judges.

F) Your taste worry me sometimes.

G) Her reasons to leave were unknown.

H) Your wishes are weird.

I) The form of her smile was peculiar.

J) Kristoff's secret location continues under investigation

Form	Example
Noun clause 1: What/Who + verb + noun/adjective
Noun clause 2: What/How/Who/Where + noun + base form + C.	