UNIT 1 – What do we know about animals?

Exercise 1 – What do animals eat?

What do these animals eat?

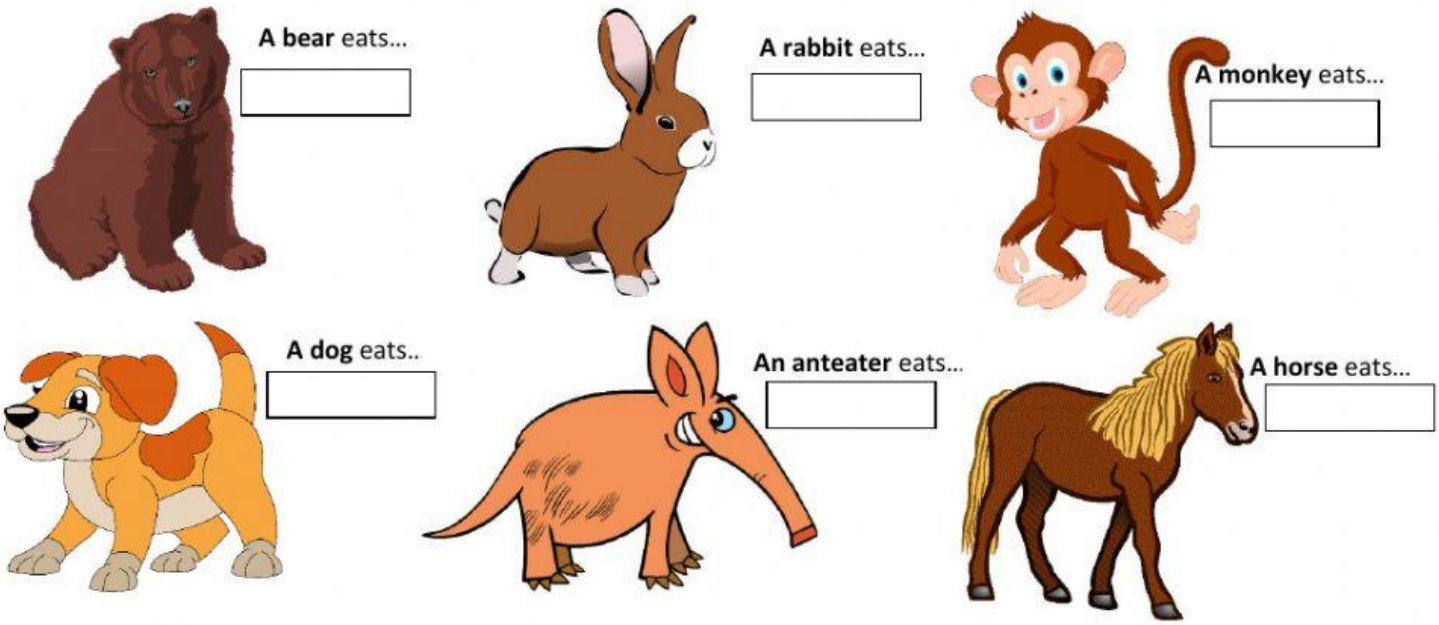
Complete the sentence by using words from exercise 1.



LIVEWORKSHEETS

Write what are animals' "babies" called.

Bear's baby is called		Bird's baby is called
Rabbit's baby is called		Camel's baby is called
Anteater's baby is called		Lion's baby is called
Monkey's baby is called		Deer's baby is called

Choose the correct tense Present simple or continuous

1. This cheetah is not running/ does not run at the moment.
2. I love / I am loving dogs.
3. My cat drinks / is drinking milk every morning.
4. Bears do not like / are not liking honey!
5. Birds can fly / can flying.
6. My mum do not want / is not wanting to buy a horse.
7. Elephants have / are having a big, long nose.
8. Snakes do not have / are not having legs.
9. A hare has/ is having bigger ears than a rabbit.
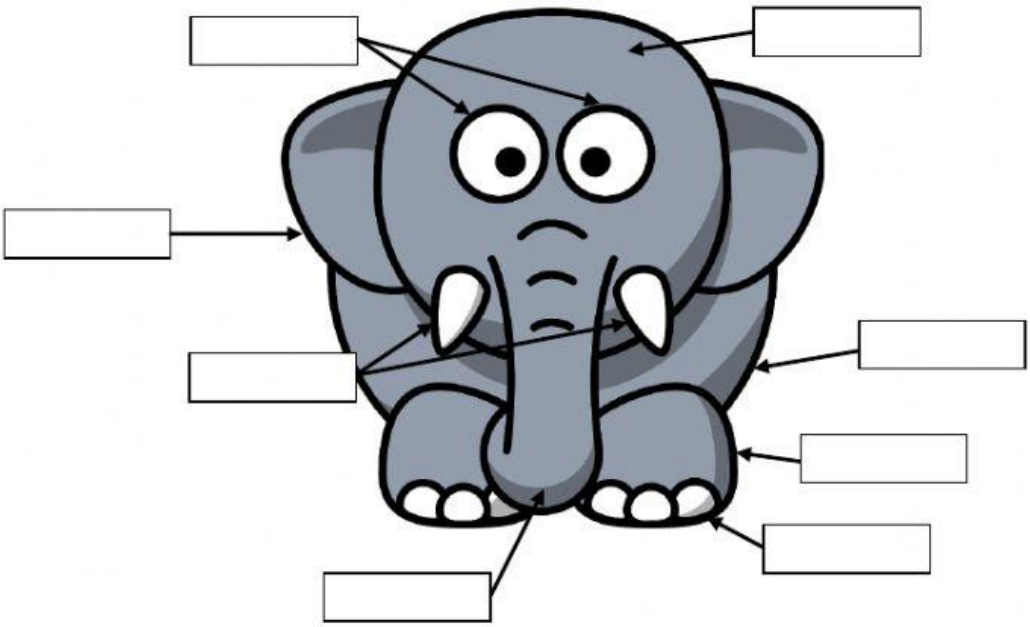
10. My hamster sleeps/ is sleeping all day today.

Use following words to describe this elephant's body parts.

TRUNK EAR HEAD TUSKS TOES LEG BELLY EYES



LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose words connected to animal's behaviour

BARKING	WHINING	STUDYING	COOKING
BREAST-FEEDING	WORKING	SNARLING	PLAYING
HUNTING	DRINKING	CRYING	CRAWLING
READING	RUNNING	WATCHING TV	SINGING

Choose which sentence is correct.

1.

Liam bought a dog last Saturday.

Liam buyed a dog last Saturday

2.

My cat likes playing with my socks.

Mine cat is likes playing with my socks.

3.

My muther's dog is too big to sleep in my bad.

My mother's dog is too big to sleep in my bed.

4.

This horse is so beautiful!

This horse is so baeutiful.

5.

I saw much monkeys in the Zoo yesterday!

I saw many monkeys in the Zoo yesterday!

LIVEWORKSHEETS