JOB INTERVIEW TIPS

questions freshers tips

Here are few tips for _____ that will help to ace the job interview. You have completed your education and heading towards a new phase of life and you really don't want to goof up. So let's look at some_____ to answer the most common _____ asked to a fresher in a job interview.

1) Tell me about yourself.
Remember the person asking you about yourself is not someone you met in a coffee shop, if all goes well he or she will be your boss or your _____. So answers like "I love being on Facebook all day long" or "I changed 3 girlfriends in my four years of college" will not be the right thing to say. The things that you need to _____ is your education background, some information about your parents or your _____ but you need not get into detail. Also you can talk about the things you like to do in your free time or something about your personality traits.

attitude focus requirements jobless hire abilities

2) Why should we hire you?
The purpose of this question is to see if you are really interested in taking up this job or you are here just because you are _____ or probably you want to make some quick money to buy a new smart phone. Relate the job _____ to your candidature and explain why your are a suitable candidate for this job. A company would like to _____ you only if you can add some value to the organization. So _____ on your skills and how helpful can it be for what you are being interviewed. Talk about your _____ such as you grasp new things quickly or you have a very flexible _____. These are some qualities that a organization looks forward for in a fresh graduate.

3) Talk about your strengths.
You need to prepare for this one way in advance before an interview. _____ all your strengths in a notepad and try to find ways to back those traits. For example " I have always submitted all my projects and assignments before the _____ date". This speaks about you being _____. Another example: "I was leading a team for a big college presentation" so this speaks about your _____ qualities. Don't _____ about how good you are but do tell the facts and don't _____.

part time mention leaves

4) Are you planning for future studies?
One should answer this question very tactfully. The company wants to know if you are here for good or you will just make use of their training resources and say goodbye to them. So if you are pursuing further studies make sure you _____ it and give a reason to it. Also if you are taking distance education or _____ courses it's important for you to mention it as you will need to take _____ for exams.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5) What do you know about our company?
Don't just wake up in the morning get dressed and go for the interview. This question is one _____ to do some research about the company. Use the search tools on the internet or go through the website, see and understand what the company is _____, what are their products or who are their clients and so on. Don't end up asking silly question like are you good pay masters or who are your _____ etc.

LIVEWORKSHEETS