

Wham bam thank you ma'am – Dean Martin

I never knew what love would do until I saw your smile
And when I did I flipped my and nearly went plum wild
But now I know I'll never show my love to anyone
'Cause wham bam you broke my heart and I hope that you had fun
(Wham bam thank you ma'am)
Hope you're satisfied
You took my heart you it apart you hurt me deep inside
I'll never be a fool again you really crushed my
(Wham bam thank you ma'am)
Hope you're satisfied
I looked at you and thought I knew just how the game was played
My shirt ran right up my back just like a window shade
I cross my I'll never start to pal for anyone
'Cause wham bam you broke my heart and hope that you had fun
(Wham bam thank you ma'am)
Hope you're satisfied
You took my heart and you tore it apart you hurt me deep inside
I'll never be a fool again you really crushed my pride
(Wham bam thank you ma'am)
And I hope you're satisfied
I made a of things I guess but now I'll recognize
The next young thing that tries to say it's a love in her eye
The love light that you spoke about was only just a flame
'Cause every time you meet a man it lights right up again
(Wham bam thank you ma'am) Hope you're satisfied
You took my heart and you tore it apart you hurt me deep inside
I'll never be a fool again you really crushed my pride
(Wham bam thank you ma'am) I hope you're satisfied

Match the expressions with the definitions. Every expression has more than one meaning.

- | | |
|--|--|
| I flipped my lid (1) | ruin or spoil something |
| (2) | swear |
| (3) | a fond expression of love |
| swallow your pride (1) | get something wrong |
| (2) | to decide to do something although it will make you feel embarrassed |
| I cross my heart (1) | a brightness of the eyes characteristic of someone in love |
| (2) | become crazy |
| (3) | I give you my word of honour |
| make a mess of (1) | do something that hurts your pride |
| (2) | suddenly lose control or become very angry |
| (3) | do something very badly |
| a love light in someone's eye (1) | promise |
| (2) | to lose your temper |