A. Fill the blanks using there is or there are

1. There are six characters in this book. (_____) three girls; Siti, Dayu, and Lina. (_____) three boys; Udin, Beni, and Edo. (_____) one girl with a head scarf, Siti. (_____) one girl with plaits, Dayu. There is one girl with loose hair, Lina. (_____) one boy with curly hair, Edo. There is one boy with straight hair, Udin. There's one boy with wavy hair, Beni.

B. Choose the correct answer

2. The roads are very busy now, because there are (many, much) vehicles. There are also many pedestrians. There is little discipline on the road, but there are very (few, little) policemen around.
3. In big cities, there are many traffic jams everywhere. There are (many, much) kinds of vehicles: cars, big buses, minibuses, trucks, bicycles, motorcycles, and becaks. Luckily, there are not many carts now.
4. Our roads are not safe now. (There are, there is)many people who cross the roads, but there are many people who drive very fast. There is little care, so there is very (many, much) worry on our roads.
5. In big cities, there is (much, many) smoke from the vehicles. You can say, (there is, there are) much air pollution. So, there are very few stars in the sky there.
6. In (many, much) places, (there are, there is) not many trees any more, so there is too much water during the rainy season, and too (little, few) water during the dry season.
