of (2) about (4) on (3) for (2) in

I know many of you are excited about starting college soon. Also, many of you are worried _____ (pay) for school. I'm sure you have been warned _____ (take) out a lot of big loans. You have heard some people complain _____ (owe) money for the rest of their lives. Wee, today, I'm going to talk about applying for three grants. Grants aren't loans. You aren't responsible _____ (pay) them back.

The first type is the Pell Grant. The Pell Grant is for students who are going to college at least part-time and need financial aid. If you're interested _____ (ask) for a Pell Grant, insist _____ (talk) with a guidance counselor to find out more about this program.

Are any of you planning _____ (major) in the areas of science or mathematics? Then you might be interested _____ (try) for the National Smart Grant. Forget _____ (get) this grant unless you have maintained at least a 3.0 GPA in your first two years of college.

Finally, I know some of you are dreaming _____ (become) teachers. The TEACH Grant is for students who plan _____ (teach) at least four years in a low-income public or private school after graduation.

Now, are there any questions?
