PARTS OF THE EAR

Direction: Draw a line to match the correct description of column A to column B.

A	B
Pinna or Auricle	Make the eardrums vibrate as sound waves reach them. It has three tiny bones – Hammer, Anvil and Stirrup.
Eardrum	It is the spiral cavity of the inner ear which produces nerve impulses to
Ear Canal	It provides information to the brain and to help maintain balance.
Middle Ear	It vibrates when the sound waves reach it.
Semicircular Canal	External part of the ear that catches sound waves.
Cochlea	Send and interpret message to the brain.
Auditory Nerves	Catches the sound waves from the pinna running to the middle ear.

LIVEWORKSHEETS