Preposition of time (at, in, on)

Choose the correct option for these grammar rules.

We use ...

- at ... for months and years.
- in ... for days and dates.
- on ... for time.

Where does it go? Write these time words in the correct group.

2021; Friday; New Year's Day; June; autumn; 5 o'clock; night; the 1st of September; half past two; the morning; birthday; bedtime

in	on	at

Fill the gaps with the correct preposition (in, on, at)

Today is my birthday! I was born ... 2010, ... the 11th of January, ... 5 o'clock ... the evening! ... my birthday I always open my presents ... dinner time. ... January we always visit my grandparents in the village and ... the last day ... midnight my dad lights some fireworks outside.

Find the mistakes and write the correct preposition in brackets.

1. They sing carols in Christmas. (...)
2. I will visit you at Sunday. (...)
3. We always go to the beach on summer. (...)
4. They read stories in bedtime. (...)
5. I always have a lot of presents at my birthday. (...)

LIVEWORKSHEETS