shopping by accident trams

buses

cars

21 May TOM

Yesterday we went and I lost Bob! I was so tired and left my rucksack in a café . We went to the Transport Museum. There were old and and there. They even had a real train.

young looked

explained

property

went back surprised

politely recognized

Suddenly I remembered Bob. We to the shopping centre and found the lost room. There was a rucksack there, but it wasn't mine. And then we saw a man with my rucksack! I my sticker on it. We asked the young man about the bag and the situation. He opened the bag and got very ! The surprise was Bob, of course. Poor Bob so unhappy!