Last year we went camping on our holidays. We left our car in the ¹*picnic area / car park* because we couldn't take our car into the campsite. The place was beautiful. There was lots of long grass in the ²*campsite / visitor centre*, so you felt like you were camping in the wild. There was a ³*car park / picnic area* in the middle where all the families met and ate dinner together around a fire. We took our bikes, which was good because there were lots of ⁴*campsites / cycle paths* and we walked a lot, too. There were lots of ⁵*forest trails / picnic areas* through the trees. There wasn't a ⁶*visitor centre / car park* because the campsite was quite small, but there was a little shop.
