Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow

Last Saturday, I was at a wedding function held in a community hall. It was my uncle who was getting married. Many people attended the wedding. I met many relatives, family friends and my uncle's colleagues from his office.

It was a wonderful wedding ceremony with elaborate decorations like in a fairy tale. The wedding started at noon with the arrival of the invited guests. The bride and bridegroom came about half an hour later.

The 'bersanding' ceremony was the most interesting part of the wedding especially when I was one of the bridesmaids. I wore a beautiful dress similar to the bride's wedding gown. I also had pretty flowers in my hair. During the 'bersanding', I helped special guests with the blessing ceremony, the 'tepung tawar'. After the bersanding, there was a life band performance.

I had never felt very happy before in my life. I was proud to be part of the wedding function of my favourite uncle. I was also pleased because I helped to distribute the 'bunga telur' to all the guests. The wedding was indeed a memorable event. The wedding ended around three in the afternoon. Everyone was happy and enjoyed themselves.
