NEW YEAR

AROUND THE WORLD

Exercise 1: Choose the correct name of each New year tradition to the picture

Breaking dishes	Lucky money	Water fighting	Party by the beach	Hang onions

pageborders.org

LIVEWORKSHEETS

See the "Ball Drop"

First-footing

Run with a suitcase

Eat 12 grapes

Ring the bell

pageborders.org

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 2: Look at the flag, listen to the name of each country and choose the correct word

pageborders.org

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 3: Connect the New Year tradition to the country

Breaking dishes	The USA
Ring the bell	Argentina
See “Ball Drop”	Denmark
Hang onions	Scotland
Run with a suitcase	Thailand
First-footing	Japan
Eat 12 grapes	Greece
Water fighting	Australia
Lucky money	Spain
Party by the beach	China

pageborders.org

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 4: Read the sentences and choose True or False

Sentence	True	False
New Year in Australia is in the summer.
Only people in Scotland believe in First-footing
Water fighting means washing away the old year.
Running around with a suitcase on New Year will bring more travelling next year.
Japanese see fireworks and ring the bell.
12 grapes are 12 months of a year.
Only China has Zodiac.
The “Ball Drop” is only in Times Square.
Hanging onions means more luck next year.
Many countries have Lucky money in red envelopes.

pageborders.org
LIVEWORKSHEETS