4 Definite and indefinite articles: the, a / an

1 Complete the dialogues with a / an or the.

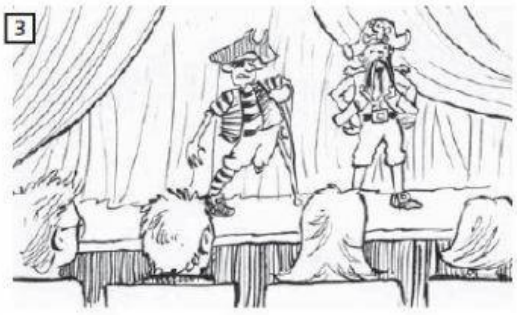
1

A Excuse me. Where's _____ museum please?

B It's opposite _____ hospital. Take _____ first right and turn left at _____ traffic lights. You'll see _____ large building on the right. _____ museum is opposite. It's got _____ orange sign outside.

3



A Excuse me. How do I get to _____ New Theatre, please?

B I'm sorry I don't know. There's _____ theatre in North Street, but I don't know what it's called. There's _____ tourist information office in _____ main square. I'm sure they will know. They can give you _____ map too.

2

A Excuse me is there _____ post office near here?

B There's _____ small one behind _____ town hall.

A Where's that?

B Turn left at _____ next corner and go straight on. Turn right at _____ first roundabout and you'll see _____ town hall. _____ post office is in _____ small square behind it.

4

A Excuse me. Can you tell me where _____ beach is?

B Yes. Go straight on. You can see _____ sea from here.

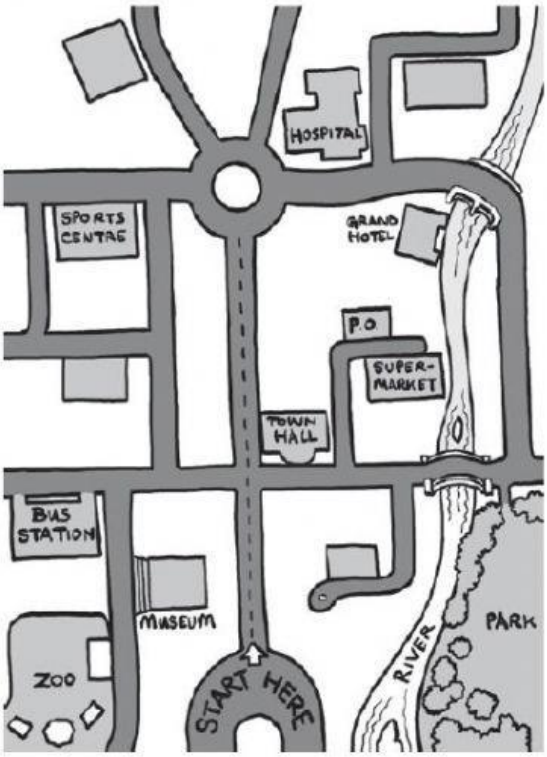
A Oh yes! Is there _____ car park near it?

B No there isn't, but you can park in a lot of _____ streets.

A Thanks. Have _____ nice day!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 Directions



Student A ask directions for:

the cinema
the bank
the police station

Use the expressions:

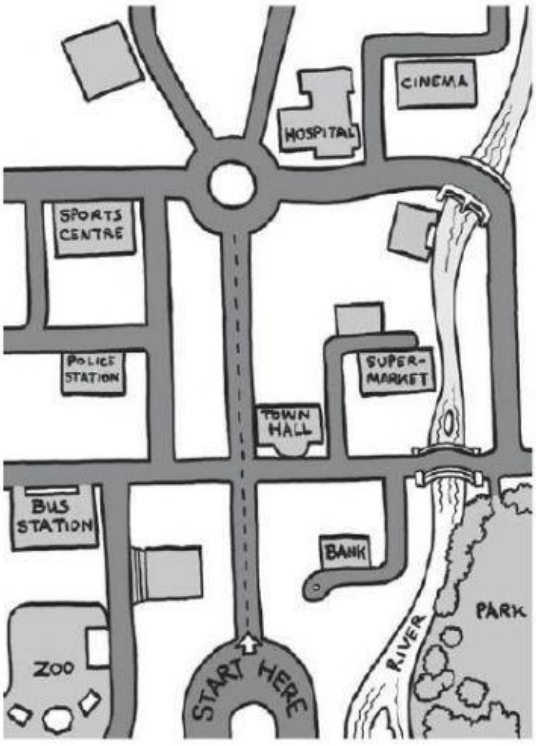
Excuse me.
Is there a ...
How do I get to ...
Where's the ...

Student B ask directions for:

the museum
the post office
the Grand Hotel

Use the expressions:

Excuse me.
Is there a ...
How do I get to ...
Where's the ...



LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS