What's the MAIN Idea?

IMPORTANT: The distractors are usually true sentences (or facts) from the text. But they are not the main idea.

Watch the following three short films/videos and choose the main idea for each of them.

The Power of Words (1.48 min.)

(click on the blue box to go to the video)

1. It is important to help blind people.
2. The words you choose to use make a difference.
3. People can go up to a blind man and write on his sign.
4. It is cold when you sit on the sidewalk in the winter.

Ants (De Lijn - Mieren – ENG) (32 sec.)

(click on the blue box to go to the video)

1. Ants communicate and cooperate with each other.
2. Anteaters are animals that eat ants.
3. Travelling together is safer for everyone.
4. Anteaters cannot enter De Lijn busses.

© Naomi Epstein

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Love Story in Milk (2.12 min.)

(click on the blue box to go to the video)

1. Milk is made in modern factories.
2. People of all ages drink milk.
3. Only low fat milk can be recycled.
4. Recycling is better for the environment.

© Naomi Epstein

LIVEWORKSHEETS