An interview to Emilia Clarke

Complete with the correct form of the verb "to be"

Reporter: Good morning, Ms. Clarke. How _____ you?

Clarke: Fine. Thank you. It _____ lovely to be here this morning.

Reporter: Thank you. Where _____ you from?

Clarke: I _____ from England. I _____ born in London.

Reporter: _____ London a nice city for you?

Clarke: Of course it _____ ! I love London and I always will.

Reporter: _____ your family in London?

Clarke: Yes, it ____. My mother and brother _____ London dwellers.

Reporter: But you also have a house in California. _____ it a good place to live?

Clarke: Yes, it _____. But sometimes I ____ homesick and California _____ (not) really my home.

Reporter: Thank you, Ms. Clarke.