The Princess and the Pea

Jack and the Beanstalk

Once upon a time there was a poor woman who had a son named Jack. They had to sell their cow to get food. Jack sold the cow for some beans. When he took the beans home his mother was so mad that she threw them out the window.

The next morning there was a giant beanstalk that had grown up into the sky. Jack climbed up the beanstalk. He found a castle. The giant's wife let Jack in and gave him some supper. When the giant came home she hid Jack. The giant ate his supper and then asked for his magic hen that laid golden eggs. When the giant fell asleep Jack ran home with the hen.

The giant ran after Jack. Jack climbed down the beanstalk and chopped it down before the giant could catch him. Jack and his mother became rich with the golden eggs from the magic hen. Jack and his mother lived happily ever after.
