Vocabulary Session

Hitting (on) someone	To nervously await something.
Griding (one's) teeth	Sleep like a baby.
Lie in (one's) hands	To interact with someone in a way that shows romantic interest.
To snore	To mess something up with litter, trash or possessions.
Fart around	A person, especially a child, who talks a lot.
Rap one´s knuckles	Stop stalling or stammering and just say what you want or intend to say.
Bite (one's) nails	To spend time foolishly or aimlessly.
Being a chatterbox	To sleep heavily, without waking.
Litter (something) up	To give someone a minor warning, scolding or punishment.
Being late to your own funeral	To be particular lazy or indolent.
To 'sleep like a log'	To talk incessantly or excessively, making someone become exhausted or bored.
Chew (one´s) ear	Procrastinate or waste time idly.
Being (as) lazy as a bear	To be under one´s control or influence.
Spit it out!	Said humorously to emphasise the fact that someone is always late or unpunctual.
Picking one´s nose	To internalise one´s anger without expressing it externally.

LIVEWORKSHEETS