Professor Puffendorf is a famous inventor. She's very clever. Have you got any of her inventions at home? Have you got some Unburnable Toast, or a Banana-Matic Machine, or a Smell-o-Telephone?

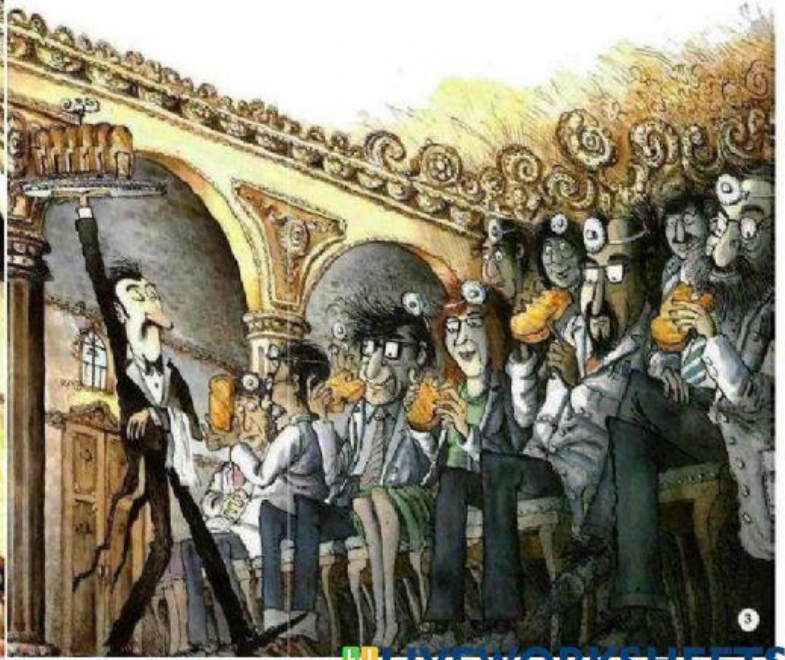

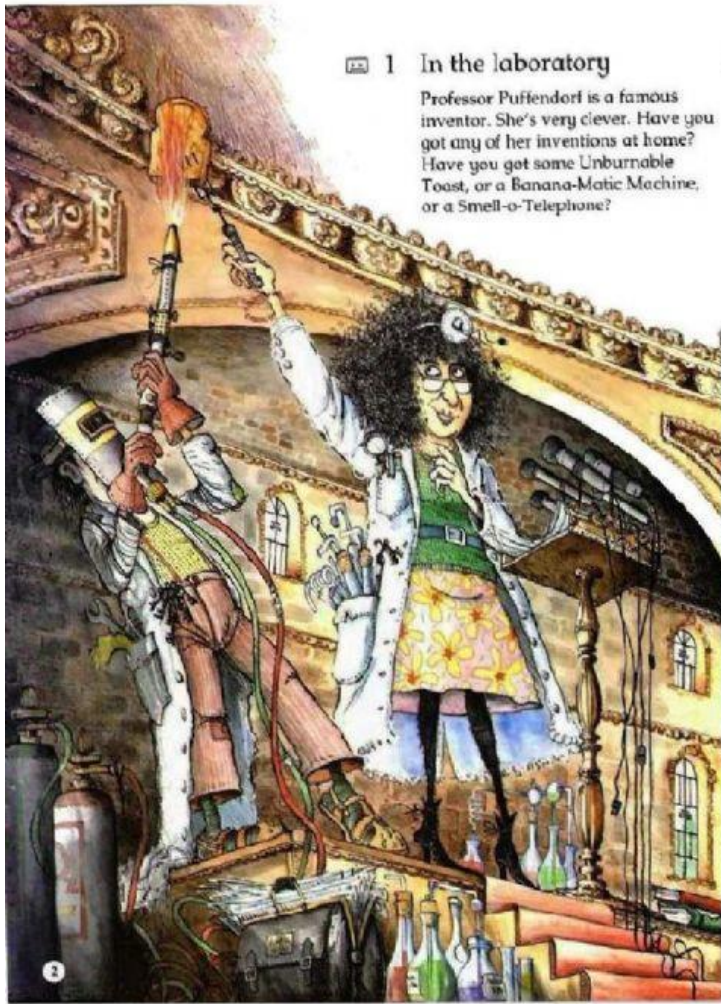

Unburnable Toast

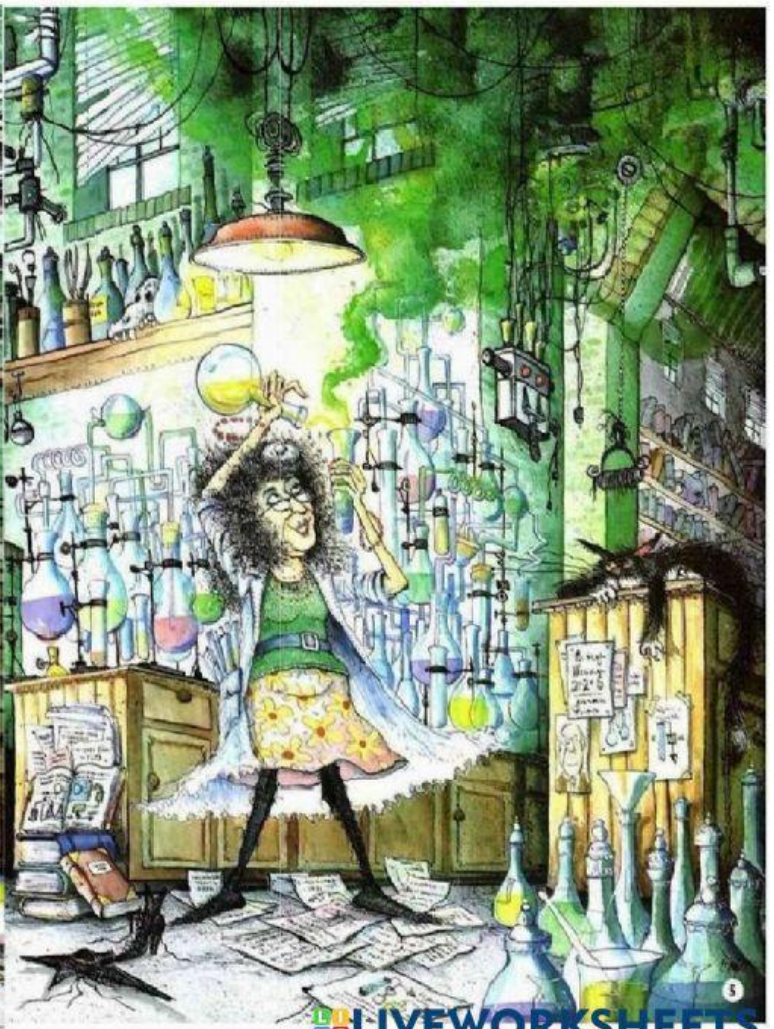

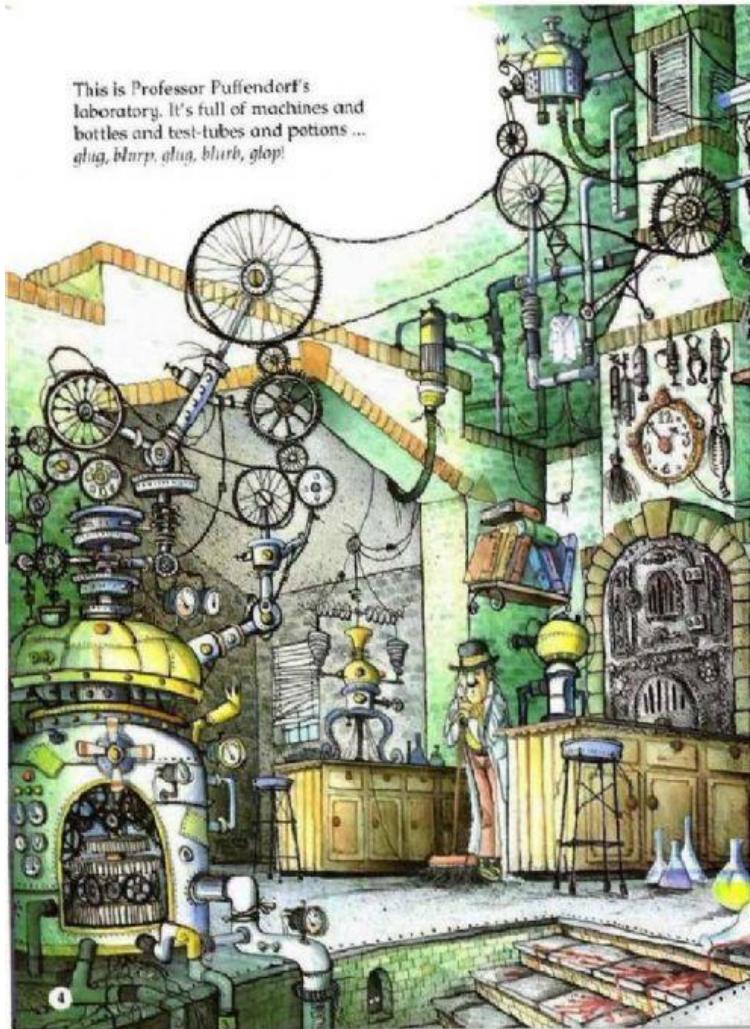

Banana-Matic Machine

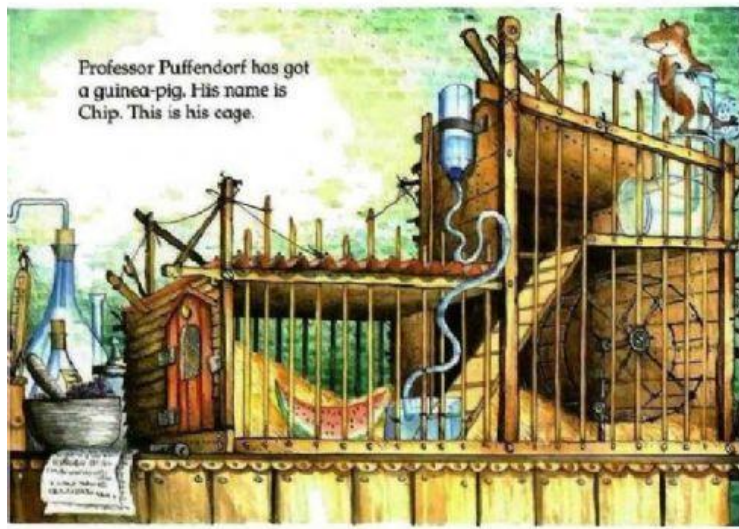

Smell-o-Telephone

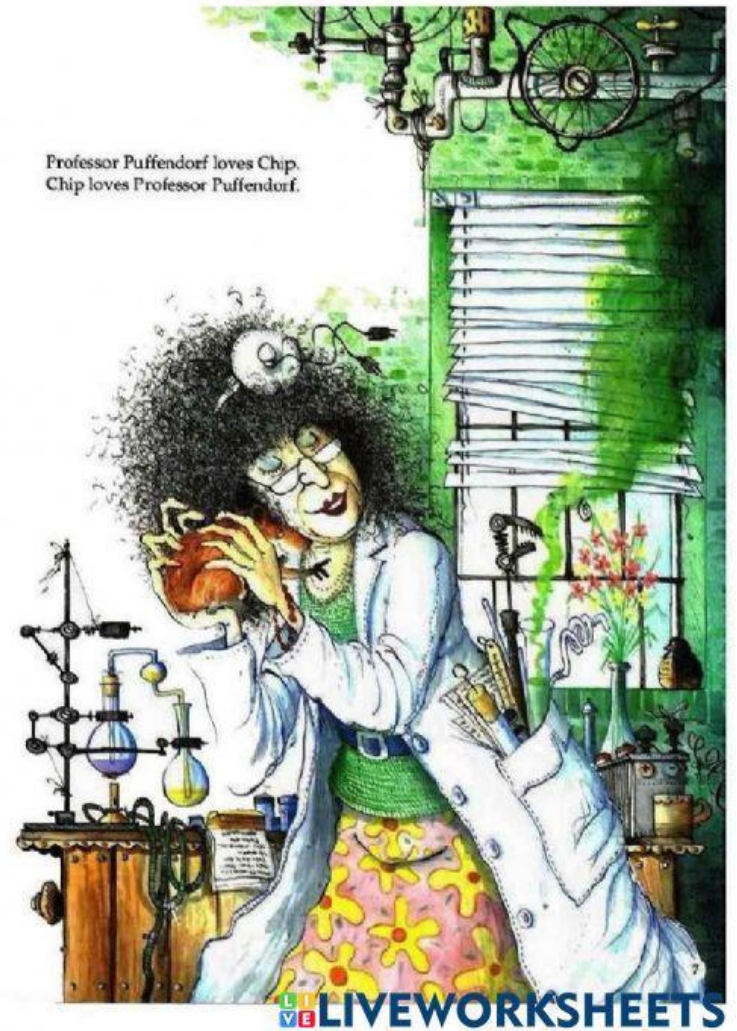

This is Professor Puffendorf's laboratory. It's full of machines and bottles and test-tubes and potions ...
glug, blarp, glug, blurb, glop!

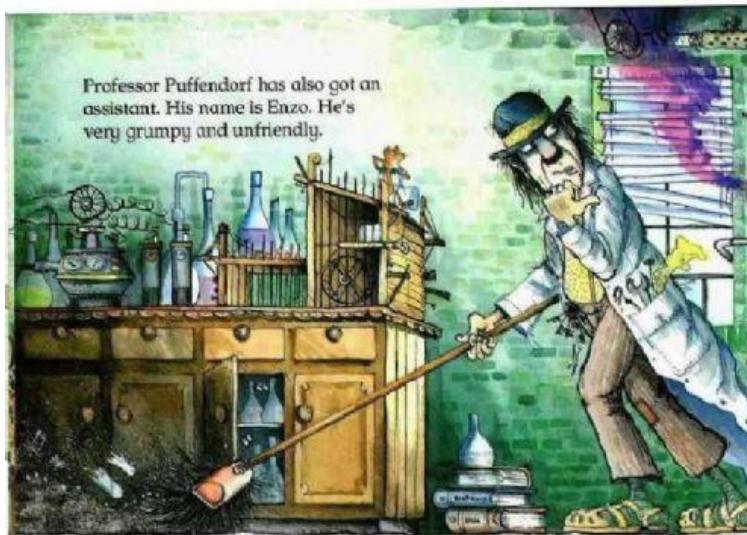

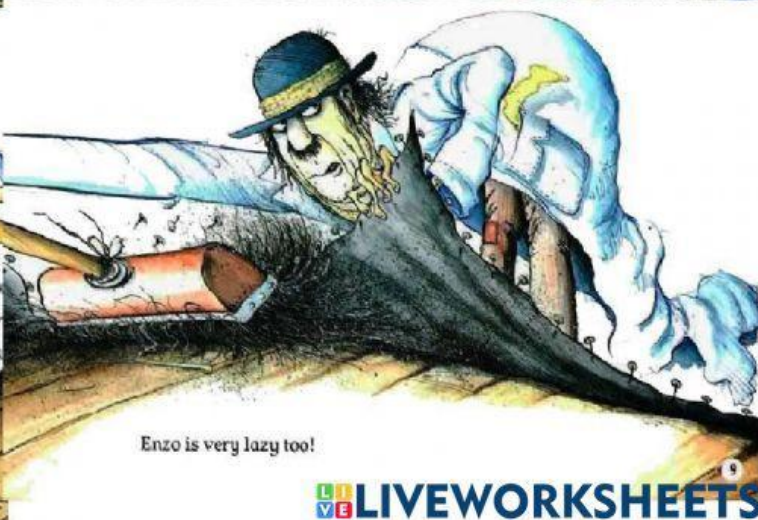

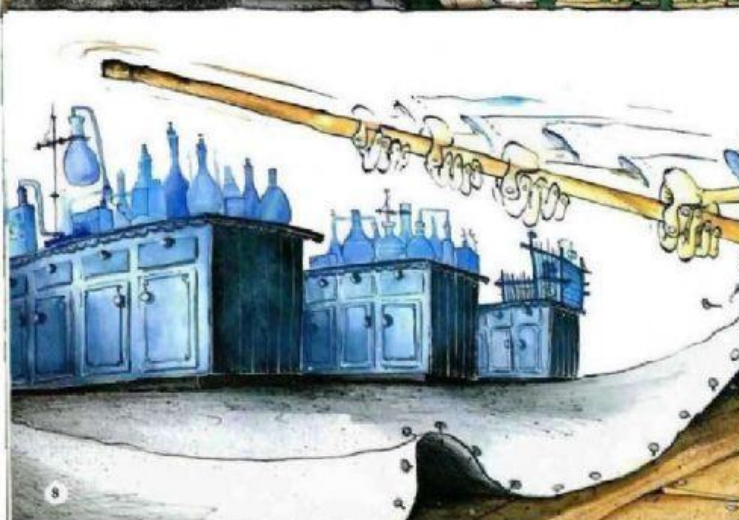

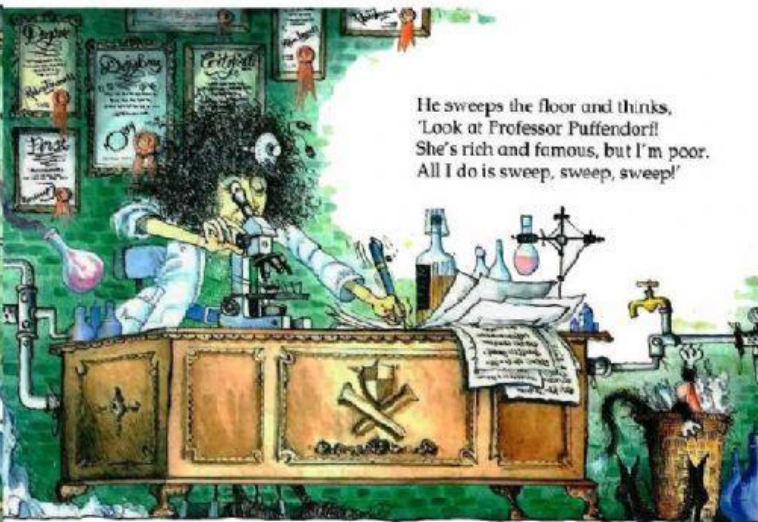

And this is Chip. He's happy and friendly.

Professor Puffendorf has also got an assistant. His name is Enzo. He's very grumpy and unfriendly.

He sweeps the floor and thinks,
'Look at Professor Puffendorf!
She's rich and famous, but I'm poor.
All I do is sweep, sweep, sweep!'

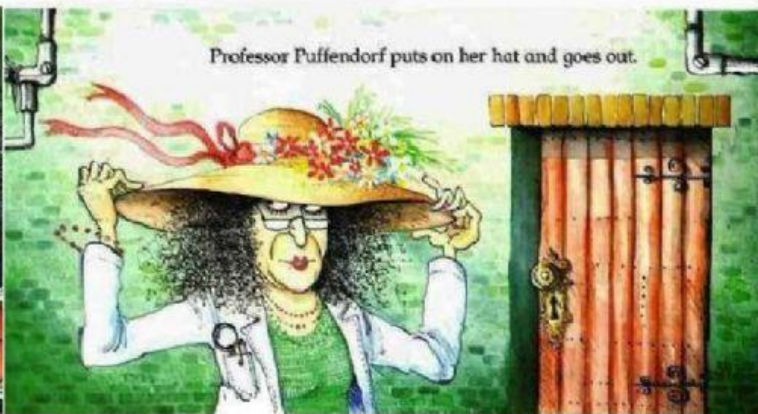

Enzo is very lazy too!

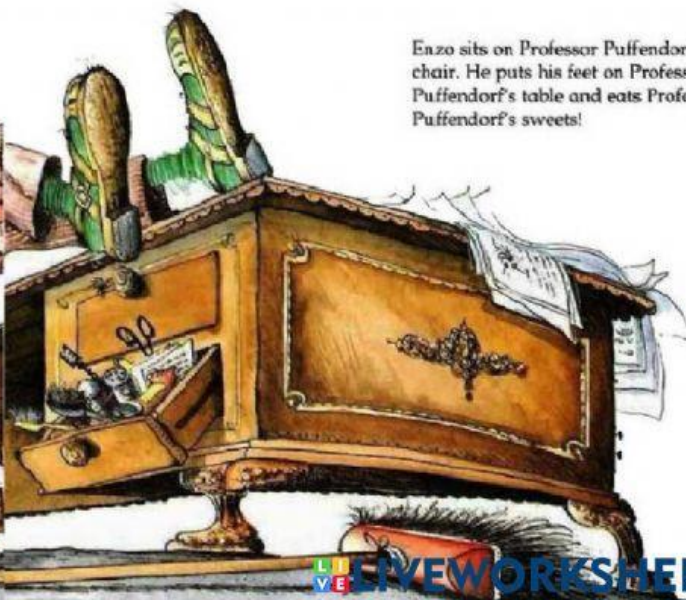

One day, Professor Puffendorf is going out. 'Enzo, please wash the bottles, count the test-tubes, sweep the floor, and give Chip his tea ... and don't forget to switch off the special machine and close the door.'

Professor Puffendorf puts on her hat and goes out.

Enzo sits on Professor Puffendorf's chair. He puts his feet on Professor Puffendorf's table and eats Professor Puffendorf's sweets!
