Prehistory Test Name:_____

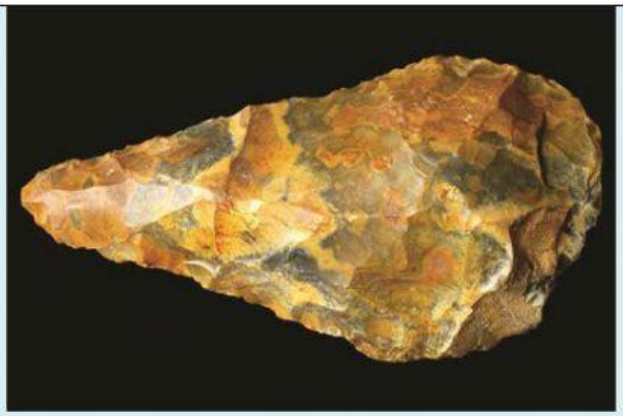
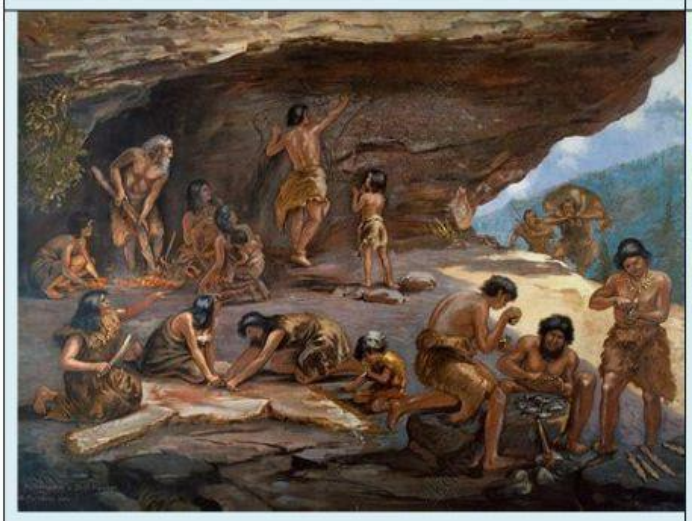
1-Read the sentences about the Prehistory and write Palaeolithic, Neolithic or Metal Ages

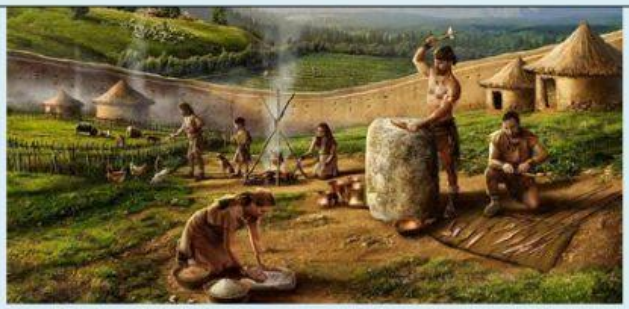
They became sedentary.	Villages were surrounded by forts and walls for protection.	They made textile for clothing.
They were nomads and hunter-gatherers.	They settled in villages, usually near rivers.	They made tools from stone, bone and wood.
People lived in caves.	New jobs, such as metal worker and trade appeared.	People became farmers and cultivated crops.
They painted pictures in caves.	They discovered fire.	Society became more hierarchical according to the amount of property people had.
They formed the first communities.	People used gold and silver to make coins and jewellery.	They built stone monuments for burials and rituals.
People lived in huts made out of adobe. The roofs were covered with different materials, such as straw.	They wore animal skins.	They developed trade with other communities.
They began to polish stone, so tools became sharper.	They used ceramic pots for cooking and storage.	It began when humans discovered how to extract metals.

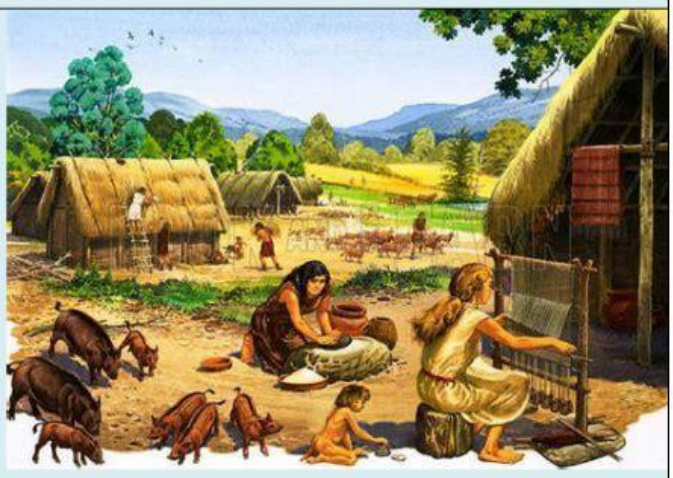
LIVEWORKSHEETS

2.- Look at the pictures and write Palaeolithic, Neolithic or Metal Ages.









LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS