

1. Fill in the gaps with many, much, a lot (of), some, any, no.
If there are two possible variants each will be correct. *MIND THE SENSE!

1. I have got hardly _____ time left. I am in a hurry.
2. There are too _____ people here.
3. Is there _____ flour in the kitchen? – Yes, but not _____.
4. I have _____ trouble with English. I can't understand _____ rules. That's why I get only good marks.
5. There are always _____ athletes taking part in these Olympics.
6. There aren't _____ rivers there. It's a hot and dry place.
7. Does your sister spend _____ money on clothes? – Oh, yes, she spends _____.
8. Did you buy _____ clothes, Kate? – Oh, no, only a skirt.
9. I must say, you haven't got _____ books at home. – Yes, we prefer e-books. The ones in the bookcase are very old.
10. We all know that old Mr. Higgins is very rich and has got _____ money.
11. There isn't _____ meat in the freezer. I can't make borsch. – Ok, I'll go and buy _____.
12. Steve has got _____ friends. He is always alone.
13. Did he sell _____ pictures at the auction? – Yes, two or three, I think.
14. We have got _____ milk left. What shall we do?
15. It didn't rain _____ last year.
16. Do you know _____ Mexican people? – Yes, I worked there for six years and I've got _____ good friends there.
17. They didn't pay _____ attention to the shouting children. They only looked at them from time to time.
18. Have you got _____ English books?
19. There isn't _____ wind outside. There is only a small breeze.
20. She has _____ patience. She begins to cry at once.

