Use the vocabulary

Now use the vocabulary we learnt today:

improve efficient revolutionary transparent theory model obtain grant develop inspired ingenious virtual prompted looks promising get going step it up high time

I really want to _____ on this art project. If we don't get started soon then we'll run out of time.

I hope the government will give me a _____ to help the homeless people.

I want to _____ my handwriting as my teacher says she can't read it!

I feel like I've been waiting for my results forever! It's _____ that I received them.

Sarah wanted to _____ ____ a copy of the author's first book. She asked in the book shop in town.

It's hard for me to find places to eat as I'm a vegan. But this restaurant _____ because it has lots of vegetable based food on the menu.

The police officer was _____ because he was so skilled and always found different ways to catch the criminals.

I could see you were drinking orange juice because the bottle is _____.

We use LED lightbulbs because they are more _____ and use less energy.

The internet is a _____ shopping mall, you can't touch anything or try anything on.

The poem written by Henry James _____ me and I decided to write a song.

My mum told me I needed to work harder at Maths and I needed to _____ if I wanted to go to University.

The new Nintendo game is _____, nothing like this has ever been made before.

Before we built our house we made a _____ of it, so we could see what it would look like.

The engineer wanted to invent and _____ a car powered by water.

The scientist had a _____ about the beginning of the universe, but he didn't know how to explain it.

I won the race and I was _____ to make a speech.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Now make your own sentences using some of these words.

LIVEWORKSHEETS