

OPPOSITE VERBS

lose _____

teach _____

shout _____

fall _____

float _____

come _____

borrow _____

live _____

build _____

push _____

break _____

pass _____

punish _____

smile _____

go _____

arrive _____

exercise _____

spend _____

show _____

throw _____

laugh _____

sit _____

give _____

play _____

import _____

open _____

add _____

leave _____

enter _____

grow _____

2. Can you find 5 more more examples of opposite verbs.

...../

...../

...../

...../

...../

I. Write the correct number next to the words:

_____ cry •	• take _____
_____ walk •	• turn off _____
_____ sit down •	• pick up _____
_____ rest •	• sink _____
_____ open •	• laugh _____
_____ pull •	• run _____
_____ turn on •	• stand up _____
_____ float •	• work _____
_____ give •	• close _____
_____ drop •	• push _____

II. Complete the following sentences using the verbs above:

- I usually _____ in the morning to keep fit and I _____ in the evening, to relax.
- I don't like when you're sad and _____. Let me tell you a joke to make you _____.
- When he _____ed the door, someone from inside _____ed him in.
- The students _____ when the teacher comes in. "You may _____, she says.
- The girl _____d the door to her room because she was upset.
"Can I _____ the door and come in?", her mother asked.
- The boat was _____ing on the water, but when a strong storm came, it began to _____.
- If you _____ someone a gift, you can't _____ it back from that person anymore.
- You must first _____ to earn money, then you can go home and _____.
- I have just _____ed my books. Please _____ them up for me, will you?
- Someone has _____ the light, it's so dark. I must _____ it on right away.

 borrow lend	 break mend	 build destroy
 land take off	 punish reward	 stop move exercise rest	 show hide	 drop pick

4. Look at the opposites choose one of them and write examples.

-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-