My favourite festival is Las Fallas which takes place in Valencia. Groups of artists spend the whole year making huge dolls made of wood and these are placed along the streets of the city. There are also processions with big _____ and local people dress in traditional _____. On the final night, the wooden statues are set on fire and thousands of _____ watch as the expensive statues burn! It gets very crowded. Some people even throw fireworks, but my dad says that's dangerous, so we throw _____ instead.

WOMAD takes place every year in July and celebrates international music, arts and dance. It's an excellent opportunity to discover music from different countries. My favourite part are the art classes. You can learn to paint or make things like _____ or a _____ to wear at the festival. _____ also teach circus classes. Next year, I want to learn how to perform with a _____. It looks like a lot of fun!
