Listening 2.03

1. Listen to a speaker talking about women in science.

Choose the correct option.

1) Men are better at Maths than women.
2) Teachers don't encourage girls to do science.
3) Girls don't enjoy science at high school.

2. Listen to the text again. Choose T if the statement is true according to the text, F if it is false.

1) The most famous people in science are men. T F
2) The speaker hates of Maths. T F
3) A lot of people believe female mind isn't suited to mathematics and science. T F
4) Mrs. Hopkins, speaker's chemistry teacher has always been very silly. T F
5) Nobody encouraged the speaker to follow her dream. T F

3. Match the words that the speaker used with their definitions.

female	a little
be aware of	not fair or acceptable
slightly	to make someone more likely to do something stereotype	belonging or relating to women unreasonable	unfair and untrue belief that many people have supportive	have knowledge about a particular subject
encourage	showing agreement and giving encouragement

LIVEWORKSHEETS