Primary 3/4

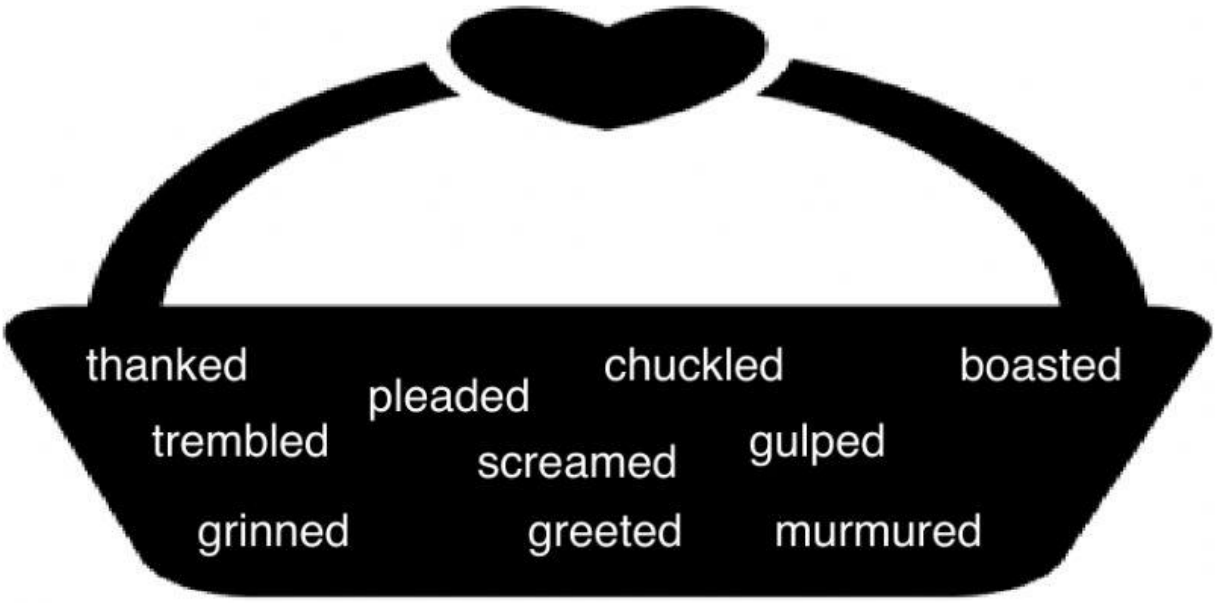
Week 30

The Write Tribe

SPEECH TAGS
GLAD & SCARED

LIVEWORKSHEETS

GLAD	SCARED



LIVEWORKSHEETS

Thank	To shake with fear while saying something
Tremble	To say something in a grateful manner
Grin	To say something with a big smile on the face
Plead	To laugh softly because you are amused
Chuckle	To beg someone out of fear

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Scream	To cry out loudly in fear
Greet	Swallow nervously
Gulp	To welcome someone or say something in a friendly manner
Boast	To say something in a low quiet voice, to show fear or unhappiness
Murmur	To show off because you are proud of something, usually in an annoying fashion

LIVEWORKSHEETS

"My name is Ben," the shy boy

_____,

his name so inaudibly that we could barely hear him.

"See my new car? It's made of diamonds."

_____,

Todd, to our annoyance.

"Get this cockroach out of my hair!"

_____,

Miel while flailing her arms frantically in the air, resembling an awkward penguin.

"Good afternoon, Ms Maha!"

_____

the class unanimously.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

"You're so considerate! I'm grateful!"

_____

the old lady when I gave up my seat.

"S-s-so cold!"

_____

my sister in the mercilessly cold theatre.

"That's so funny!"

_____

my teacher when I related the funny incident that happened over the weekend.

Heidi

_____

nervously when the teacher caught her for being late.

The Write Tribe

LIVEWORKSHEETS

"Could you spare some change?"

_____

the poor orphan like a sad puppy, hoping for some coins.

"What did you get for my birthday?"

_____

my sister from ear to ear, flashing her pearly whites at me.

LIVEWORKSHEETS