ELLIE'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

at the Tualatin Zoo

Ellie the Elephant is turning 40! Come and help her celebrate.

- Ellie will have a special birthday cake of whole wheat flour and peanut butter frosting. Zoo visitors can try a piece of Ellie's tasty treat or enjoy a cake made just for humans.
- Kids under 10 will receive a pair of floppy elephant ears to wear in the Birthday Parade. Ellie and her keepers will lead the way around the zoo at 11:00.
- Local bands will play a variety of music all day at the zoo's amphitheater. Bring a picnic, relax, and listen.
- A timeline of Ellie's life will be on display for the month of May, complete with great photos.
- Join in the Elephant Imitation Contest at 1:00. Prizes will be given for the best imitations of elephant sounds and actions.

Saturday, May 25

11:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M.

Normal zoo admission fees apply:

Adults – $6.50 Children 2–12 – $3.50

Pre-registered Groups – $3.00/person Under 2/Over 75 – No charge

GO

25 On which of these days could you visit the zoo to see the timeline of Ellie's life?

A Only on May 25
B Only before May 25
C Any Saturday throughout the year
D Any time during May

26 Which of these is an opinion on the poster?

A Kids can be part of the Birthday Parade.
B The Elephant Imitation Contest will be at 1:00.
C Bands will play music at the amphitheater.
D Visitors will think Ellie's treat is tasty.

27 This poster was written in order to —

A sell tickets to the elephant parade
B offer special tours of the zoo
C encourage people to visit the zoo
D teach people about the zoo's elephants

28 Who would be most likely to get in free?

A Your class
B Your baby sister
C Your father
D Your older brother

29 The birthday party activities are for —

A kids under 10
B elephants only
C the entire family
D kids and teenagers

30 The poster does not tell you —

A why the zoo is having the party
B how much it costs to get in
C what time the activities start
D how to get to the zoo

STOP

LIVEWORKSHEETS